

If you received from NICA a copy of the “Order Granting Defendants Motion For Leave to Serve Documents on Newly Identified Class Members” along with a copy of the “Class Notice of Settlement” and did not opt out of the Class by filling out and mailing in the “Opt Out Of The Class” form, you are now a member of the Class Action lawsuit described in the “Class Notice of Settlement.” If you are seeking reimbursement for medically necessary and reasonable residential and custodial care and services provided in the past, or both in the past and the future, you must submit your claim forms no later than December 6, 2013. The claim form and instructions which explain the procedures and deadlines for submitting a claim form will be mailed to you by NICA by no later than August 19, 2013.